"The hardest thing in the world to understand is the income tax."

~Albert Einstein

Is Einstein really correct in saying the above?

Why don't you prove him wrong?

What do you need to know about tax law as a lawyer? Is tax all about numbers? Do you know enough about tax law to save taxes for yourself and your clients?

At this seminar you will learn how to:

- ✓ identify tax relief for yourself;
- ✓ identify tax issues for your client;
- ✓ minimise tax incidents for your client in the long run; and
- ✓ understand tax risk management

Areas to be covered:

- What are the basic principles of taxation?
- What is trading income and capital income?
- What are the various types of income?
- What is the source of income and tax residence?
- What is trading expenditure and capital expenditure?
- Snippets of recent tax cases
